

INDEX.

1847.

Chap. Sec.

KENT COUNTY—

on delivering any person or persons at the same, who may be committed for any breach of the peace, &c., to be paid as other charges, &c., constables not to receive more than four dollars for any one delivery, distance to be computed from place, where commitment is issued and from jail to residence of constables, said sum of eight cents to be levied and paid only as the levy court shall allow, &c.

225

In all cases where writ of venditioni exponas shall be returned by any constable to any justice, &c and the property in said writ remain unsold, &c., duty of justice to whom return made, to enter the same with the date on his docket, etc., and thereupon deliver said writ to the constable, who shall take such proceedings under said writ, so delivered for the period of one year from date of return &c., as might be had in virtue of renewals &c., and it shall not be lawful within said period of one year, to issue any second writ, or renewals &c., under said original writ constable to remain under same legal obligation to sell &c., his official bond liable &c., liable for non performance &c., nothing in this act to affect the provisions of the act of 1845, chapter 379, &c.

1

Inconsistent acts repealed &c., act in operation from passage.

2

The Orphans court of, consenting, John E. Stewart, authorised to transfer all his right, in negro boy named Wm. Gibbs, bound for a term of years to Thomas Slaughter.

3

276

An additional school district to be called No. 9, in 1st election district, to be established &c.,

281

Levy court of, to appoint commissioners to value and lay out a public road in &c.

312

The power by act of 1838, chapter 380, to establish magistrates courts &c., in relation to issuing attachments